1. Practice methods as taught in the course, particularly precautionary measures. Before providing a layout on an animal, always ask for permission first.
2. Always work on your own healing and education, and maintaining your own energy balance.
3. Be open to the continuing process of enhancing your professional qualifications, training, experience and skills.
4. If you choose to teach a class on crystal healing for animals, please respect the copyrighted training materials provided to you from Manifested Harmony and refrain from utilizing the materials. It is important for you to create your own unique training materials that reflect you.
5. Any information that is discussed during session or on intake form from a pet parent is confidential.

6. Never medically diagnose or prescribe. Never suggest that the client change medically prescribed treatment or interfere with the treatment of a licensed veterinary care provider. Avoid the use of patient, cure, prognosis, diagnosis, treat.
7. Provide a safe and comfortable area for sessions or classes and work to provide an empowering and supportive environment for animal clients.
8. Always treat animal clients with the utmost respect and honor.
9. Have a pure and clear intention to offer your services for the highest healing good of the animal client and highest potential of the student.
10. Be respectful of all others' views and paths. Educate, do not debate.
11. Educate clients/students on the value of crystal healing and explain that sessions do not guarantee a cure, nor are they a substitute for qualified medical or professional care. Crystals can be one part of an integrative healing or wellness program for an animal.
12. Respect and value all energy workers.
13. Vow to encourage your clients to heal themselves, assisting them in their personal growth as well as in their own crystal practice, as a way of helping their animal companion(s).
14. Always treat your students with the greatest respect. Never engage in any illegal or immoral activity with your clients or students. Never touch their genital area or breasts, never ask them to disrobe, and never make sexual comments, jokes or references. Never engage in romantic or sexual relations with a client.
